SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of four years as to Count 1; 3 years as to Count 2 to be ran concurrently.

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of supervised release is mandatory for possession of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer.

Pursuant to Public Law 108-405, Revised DNA Collection Requirements Under the Justice for All Act of 2004, the defendant shall submit to DNA collection while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons, or at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not use or possess a firearm, ammunition, dangerous weapons or destructive device. Supervised release shall be revoked for possession of a firearm.

The defendant shall make special assessment and restitution payments as ordered by the Court and is required to notify the Court, through the Probation Office, of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to meet these monetary obligations.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court (set forth on the following page). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Officer for substance abuse treatment, which may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of controlled substances.

The defendant shall abstain from alcohol and is prohibited from entering establishments whose chief source of income is derived from the sale of alcohol.

The defendant shall obtain and maintain full-time employment, or participate in an educational program or vocational training at the direction of the United States Probation Office.

The defendant shall participate in mental health counseling at the direction of his supervising U.S Probation Officer, and will take any prescription medication prescribed in connection with his mental health treatment.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office or vehicle to a search, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall become an active member of Narcotics Anonymous immediately upon his release from custody. He shall obtain a sponsor and shall sign any necessary releases to permit communication between his sponsor and his supervising U.S. Probation Officer. The frequency of attendance shall be determined by his clinician and supervising U.S. Probation Officer. Failure to attend shall be deemed a material violation of supervised release.

FINANCIAL PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total financial penalties in accordance with the schedule of payments set out below.

Count	Assessment	Restitution	Fine
1	$100.00	N/A	$300.00 (as to all counts)
2	$100.00	N/A
Totals:	$200.00	$0.00	$300.00

FINE AND/OR RESTITUTION

The fine and/or restitution includes any costs of incarceration and/or supervision. The fine, which is due immediately, is inclusive of all penalties and interest, if applicable.

The defendant shall pay interest on any fine and/or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the fine and/or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of the judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the below payment options are subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest or penalties and it is ordered that:

The interest and penalties not be applied to fine and/or restitution.
